Courthouse Facilities Advisory Committee Update

The Courthouse Facilities Advisory Committee convened July 31 to receive the findings by the Architect Selection Subcommittee. The Committee directed County Capital Projects Manager Rich Smith to submit the findings to the Board of Commissioners and enter into contract negotiations. Mr. Smith is expected to seek the commissioners' authorization to move the process forward at their August 7 meeting.

Stepping up

In May, the Board approved a contract for the construction of a stairway to connect the upper and lower parking lots at the Rick Rhyne Public Safety Center. The project, pictured at right, is nearing completion.

Happy Birthdays!

Commissioner Louis Gregory celebrated his birthday on July 24 and County Attorney Misty Leland celebrated hers on July 30.

"Pawsitive" Animal Ops Info Shared at July Meeting

County volunteer Kristen Seawell was recognized during the Board's July 17 meeting for her excellent work on behalf of Animal Operations, including coordination of round trip transportation for Robbins area pets to the spay/neuter clinic in Vass. Sheriff Neil Godfrey awarded a plaque to Ms. Seawell for her service.

Citizens' Pet Responsibility Committee Chair Angela Zumwalt provided an update to the Board on the Committee's work, including that they recently completed their 10th year of an education program in fourth grade classrooms across Moore County.

Sheriff Neil Godfrey addressed the Board regarding the commendable volunteer efforts of Kristen Seawell on behalf of animals in Moore County, particularly in the Robbins area.

A special guest greeted Ms. Seawell. A dog she rescued and its new owners were in attendance for presentation of her award.

PRC Chair Angela Zumwalt shared the Committee's successes with the Board.

Several volunteers with the Citizens' Pet Responsibility Committee were present for the update on the Committee's work, which began when it was formed in 2006. The focus of the group's efforts shifted to education in late 2008.
